

FROM AI TO CYBER – DECONSTRUCTING A COMPLEX TECHNOLOGY RISK LANDSCAPE

The 12th Annual Global Internal Audit Perspectives on Top Technology Risks Survey, conducted by Protiviti and The Institute of Internal Auditors, provides a panoramic view of how global leaders are navigating the evolving technology risk landscape.

Key Takeaways

These succinct highlights encapsulate the significant trends and pressing concerns facing today's technology audit landscape.

Cybersecurity remains the top technology threat.

Data governance and privacy concerns are prevalent.

AI is increasingly influencing audit processes.

Frequent technology audits correlate with stronger performance.

Top 5 Technology Risks

Percentages reflect the number of respondents who rated the threat a 4 or 5 on a 5-point scale, where 1 indicates "No threat at all" and 5 indicates "Significant threat".

Survey Findings by the Numbers

of respondents anticipate significant risks from AI in the next 2-3 years

respondents are using AI & Machine Learning tools in audit of respondents highlight data breaches as a major risk in the coming year

Want to dive deeper?

Delve into our comprehensive report to uncover detailed insights and actionable strategies addressing the complexities of technology risks.

Read the Full Survey Here